FOOD STORY

| ATLANTA, GA

THE COMMUNITY'S TABLE

Atlanta's downtown area is in the midst of a refresh, but Georgia World Congress Center has been acting as a catalyst for change and community development for years. A stalwart in the city, it has served as the backdrop for massive conventions, award-winning TV and film production, and so much more. Similar to the richly multifaceted appeal of Atlanta, GWCC serves as a dynamic hub that brings together a cross-section of humanity in ways that helps us share ideas, collaborate, and evolve. Our approach to food and beverage reflects the location's appreciation of its role in the city; we are inclusive, we are thoughtful, and we are always striving to do dining better than anyone else.

SIGNATURE FOOD + BEVERAGE

Imagine a bakery that is known for its creativity with baked goods all because they use the freshest local produce that can be found. That's exactly what the team at GWCC is doing - they are offering southern staples and mixing some of Georgia's finest blueberries, peaches, pecans, vidalia onions and other local Georgia foods to make all of the scratch pastries.

Georgia World Congress Center signature items include fried pies, cinnamon rolls, various pastries, chicken and waffles, Southern soul food, coffee, and infused waters.
