FOOD STORY

| BOSTON, MA

A CREATIVE SPARK

A city bursting with potential and the effervescent energy of innovation, Boston's role as a hub of intellectual stimulation provides the perfect backdrop for bringing bold, new ideas to life. At Boston Convention & Exhibition Center, the culinary approach is built on the commitment to progress and evolution via incomparable ingenuity and ambition. You will find flashes of this city's food scene tucked in every bite, but never will you find an uninspired take on New England classics thanks to our thoroughly modern approach to what makes Boston truly world class.

SIGNATURE FOOD + BEVERAGE

Staying true to our history while also incorporating modern trends into our offerings, the Beerimasu with Boston's own beer pioneer Sam Adams gives guests a signature taste of a New England favorite. This sweet Italian classic dessert is infused with the malty goodness of Sam Adams to round out the flavor profile in an imaginative, truly Boston manner.

Boston Convention & Exhibition Center signature items include beeramisus, lobster rolls, clam chowder, assorted pastries, coffee, and local beer.
