

An aerial photograph of a dramatic coastal landscape. The foreground and middle ground are dominated by steep, green mountains with deep, narrow ridges and valleys. The terrain is rugged and appears to be covered in dense vegetation. In the lower right, the mountains meet a coastline with a small, sandy beach and a bay. The water is a vibrant blue, transitioning to a deeper blue as it extends towards the horizon. The sky is filled with soft, white clouds, suggesting a bright but slightly overcast day. The overall scene is one of natural beauty and ruggedness.

HAWAI'I INTERNATIONAL CONVENTION CENTER

FOOD STORY

ALOHA 'ĀINA LOVE OF THE LAND

From its tropical waters to its mystical mountains, Hawai'i is a special and unforgettable paradise rich in native culture. We at the Hawai'i International Convention Center live with the value of aloha 'āina; being stewards of our land, sea and natural resources to encourage sustainable living and support local fishing and farming. Our guests feast on fresh, modern, island-inspired flavors made with aloha. Exotic sensory experiences are celebrated through each creatively crafted dish, so we may share our aloha 'āina with each guest we serve.

HICC TONE:

TROPICAL | FRESH
SUSTAINABLE

SIGNATURE FOOD + BEVERAGE

Bountiful harvests, plentiful fish and tropical flora create brilliantly artistic palettes for any occasion - and make any palate delighted! Islands of Hawai'i are infused into an array of playful, locally inspired dishes like ahi poke with taro chips, papaya boat parfaits, sustainable salads, and of course, Tiki mai tais and Kona coffee. Sharing a meal made with aloha at the Hawai'i International Convention Center is an adventure in itself.

The Hawai'i International Convention Center's signature favorite is poke. Centuries ago, native Polynesians would make it with raw reef fish seasoned with sea salt and seaweed, and combined with crushed candlenut. Today, there are limitless variations, but the best ones are enjoyed on the beach "talking story" with ohana and friends.
