

A photograph of the George R. Brown Convention Center in Houston, Texas, taken at dusk. The building features a prominent glass facade and a large, illuminated red cylindrical tower. In the foreground, a large, white, stylized bird sculpture is supported by thin poles, with a fountain at its base. The sky is a deep blue, and the building's lights are on, creating a warm glow. The text "GEORGE R. BROWN CONVENTION CENTER" is overlaid in large white letters across the middle of the image.

GEORGE R. BROWN CONVENTION CENTER

FOOD STORY

HOUSTON, TX

THE CULINARY CAPITAL OF THE SOUTH

Internationally known and respected, Houston has a place on the global stage, yet maintains true to its authenticity. Specifically, Houston is known for its unparalleled culture of southern hospitality. While some might say the barbecue is arguably the best, the experience is unquestionably the best. Warm welcomes and second servings can always be found in Houston. This city embraces a melting pot of culture and diversity, brought to the table with a literal melting pot of flavors and cuisine.

GRBCC TONE:

INCLUSIVE | GENUINE

SMILES AS BIG AS TEXAS

SIGNATURE FOOD + BEVERAGE

In a city where you can find anything and be anyone, food should be no exception. At George R. Brown Convention Center, you can enjoy the timeless and genuine flavor of our slow-smoked short ribs, paired with an ice-cold craft beer. If you're looking for something more creative, have a bite of jalapeno bacon praline with a locally distilled bourbon. Looking for infusion and the freshest flavors? Try our latest spin on tacos, tostadas, and house made salsas. We source locally to provide the best ingredients and deliver a truly unique experience. Houston has everything to offer its travelers and we have everything to make you feel local.

The George R. Brown Convention Center signature items include slow-smoked ribs, house-made salsas, and jalapeño bacon pralines.

